

CHATEAU de LA CHAIZE

Château de La Chaize Vieilles vignes

REgion

France, Beaujolais, Brouilly

Grape Variety

Gamay (100%)

Vinification

This "Cuvée Vieilles Vignes" is a limited production from a selection of vineyards on the estate, all older than 55 years and offering a more complex structure. After a chilly spring which delayed the vegetation, a beautifully sunny summer and harvest time led to a perfect maturity, giving this vintage its powerful and elegant structure. The "Cuvée Vieilles Vignes" is aged 13 months in French oak barrels.

Colour

Very deep ruby-red color.

Aroma

Red-fruit and spicy aroma.

Flavour

Powerful but elegant structure with silky tannin, and a beautiful long taste.

Food pairing

This Cuvée, a great classic wine of Château de La Chaize can be served from now on or aged for at least 5 years, and matches wonderfully all meats and roasts, venison, duck and cheeses. Open half an hour before serving at room Temperature (18-19°).
